Westminster, March 12.

HIS Majesty came this Day to the House of Peers, and being in his Royal Robes seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, the Honourable Sir Henry Bellenden, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to give the Royal Assent to

An Act for continuing and granting to his Majesty certain Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, for the Service of the Year One Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty One.

An Act for granting to his Majesty a certain Sum of Money therein to be mentioned, to be raised by Way of Annuities and a Lottery, and charged on the Sinking Fund, redeemable by Parliament.

An Act for enlarging the Term and Powers granted by an Act passed in the Twelfth Year of his present Majesty, for Repairing the Road between Stamford and Grantham in the County of Lincoln, and for making the same more effectual.

And to four private Bills.

Constantinople, February 5. Several considerable Changes have been lately made at this Court, the Captain Bashaw, Hadgi-Bekir-Pacha, has been deposed and sent to his ancient Government of Giddab upon the Red Sea; and Doutak-Pacha, Governor of Conya, heretofore Great Master of the Horse to the Grand Signor, has been appointed Captain Bashaw, or High Admiral in his Room, and has accordingly received Orders to take upon him the Command of the Squadron. The Tefterdar, or Grand Treasurer of the Ottoman Empire, has likewise been dismissed and banished to the Island of Tenedas, and Mustapha Effendi, one of the Secretaries of the Treasury, was this Day appointed to succeed him in that high Post. Kiaia-Bey, the Grand Vizir's First Secretary, has likewise been dismissed from that Employment, and banished to the Island of Metelin; and is succeeded by Nassif-Mustapha-Effendi. These Changes have not made the least Alteration in Affairs at this Court. By our last Letters from Persia we have an Account, that great Troubles and Confusion still subsist in that Kingdom.

Petersbourg, Feb. 23. On the 21st Instant the Great Duke's Birth-day was celebrated at Court with great Magnificence. At Noon her Imperial Majesty and their Serene Highnesses the Great Duke and Great Dutchess received the Compliments of the Foreign Ministers and all the Lords and Ladies of the Court on that Occasion; and at Night there was an elegant Supper given at the Palace, which was followed by a Ball.

Genoa, Feb. 24. We are informed by the Master of a Ship which arrived here a few Days ago from Marsailles, that the three Algerine Xebecks, which cruized lately off Ventimiglia, were sailed from thence for the Streights of Gibraltar, in order to join some other Ships of that Nation, which were cruizing in those Parts. We learn from Modena, that the Duke proposed to take a Tour to Massa in the Course of next Month, in order to give Instructions for the Erecting a Fort at the Mouth of the River Lavenza.

Dantzick, March 3. The Hopes we had conceived of the King's honouring this City with a Visit, seem at present to be quite vanished; for the last Letters we received from Dresden assure us, that his Majesty has laid aside all Thoughts of visiting Poland the ensuing Summer; however, as his Majesty has expressed a sincere Desire of establishing a good Harmony between the Magistrates and Citizens of this City, and has caused a Project, which has been laid before him for that Purpose, to be carefully examined, there is great Reason to believe that these Differences will at last be finally adjusted to their mutual Satisfaction.

Turin, March 6. Count Coloredo, the Imperial Ambassador, is recalled, in order, as it is said, to command the Troops which the Empress Queen has in Lombardy, and M. du Byne, who was Secretary to the Embassy, is to to remain charged with the Affairs of the ſaid Court till the Arrival of another Miniſter. This Morning her Serene Highneſs the Princeſs of Carignan was ſafely brought to Bed of a Prince.

Copenhagen, March 6. The ſevere Froſt we had here for ſeveral Days together, is gone off by a very gentle Thaw, and the Sound is already ſo clear of Ice, that ſeveral Veſſels in the Road of this City are preparing to put to Sea; amongſt which are the two Frigates that are going to cruize againſt the Barbary Corſairs in the Mediterranean; a Ship for Guinea, and two others for the Weſt Indies. On Thurſday laſt his Majeſty aſſiſted at the Opening of the High Tribunal of Juſtice of this Kingdom.

Vienna, March 6. Her Imperial Majeſty has diſpoſed of the Regiment of Foot, vacant by the Death of General Count Grune, in Favour of the Marqueſs de Puebla, Miniſter from this Court to that of Pruſſia. The Prince of Birkenfeldt, General of Horſe, who has been here for ſome Time paſt, has taken his Leave of their Imperial Majeſties, and is ſet out for the Empire. On Monday the Empreſs Queen was blooded by Way of Precaution; and as the Time of her Lying-in is near at Hand, all the Cannon are mounting on the Ramparts, in order to pronounce the happy News of her Delivery to the People.

Dreſden, March 6. Marſhal Count Lowendahl, who took a Tour into Poland, is returned to the Seat of Baron Kieſewitte, his Son-in-Law, about Six Leagues from hence, where he propoſes ſpending ſome Days. Sir Charles Hanbury Williams, his Britannick Majeſty's Miniſter Plenipotentiary to this Court, is expected here on Tueſday next from Berlin.

Berlin, March 9. On Thurſday laſt the King came from Potzdam to this City, when Sir Charles Hanbury Williams, Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the King of Great Britain, was admitted to his Audience of Leave, and delivered his Letters of Revocation. On Friday he took his Leave of the two Queens and the reſt of the Royal Family, and Yeſterday Morning he ſet out on his Return to Dreſden, where he is to reſide in the ſame Quality. The Baron de Koch, who came here ſome Time ſince to execute a Commiſſion from the Empreſs Queen of Hungary, had likewiſe his Audience of Leave of the King the ſame Day, and ſet out Yeſterday for Vienna. His Majeſty returned to Potzdam on Friday, after he had viſited General Count Rothenbourg, who is very much indiſpoſed.

Franckfort, March 12. By Letters from Weymar we are informed, that the Princeſs Charlotte, Siſter to the late Duke of Saxe Weymar, and Aunt to the young Duke, died there the 3d Inſtant, in the 56th Year of her Age. We learn from Manheim, that the Elector Palatine has granted a free Pardon to all Deſerters from his Troops, who ſhall return to their reſpective Regiments within the Space of Six Months. The Diſtemper amongſt the Horned Cattle continues to carry off great Numbers of them in Franconia and the Circle of Swabia.

Duſſeldorp, March 15. The States of this Dutchy have agreed to furniſh a certain Sum of Money to be employed in the raiſing of Recruits, in order to prevent any more being raiſed in the Dutchies of Bergues and Juliers, from whence they have lately been taken almoſt by Force.

Hague, March 18. On Monday laſt they began to take in Subſcriptions for the intended Lottery, which was lately agreed to by the States of this Province, when the Whole was ſubſcribed for in a very few Hours. The ſame Day ended the Aſſembly of the States of Holland and Weſtfrizeland. The Deputies of the different Colleges of the Admiralty are arrived here, and have already began their Deliberations. They write from Harlem, that M. van Kamer, Councillor and Firſt Burgomaſter of that City, and one of the Directors of the Weſt India Company, died there on Tueſday laſt.
